Christen Pollo

special guest speaker

Christen is currently the Executive Director of Protect Life Michigan and has been with the organization since 2013 when she made the scary but exciting dive into full-time prolife work. Since then, she's trained thousands of students and grown Protect Life Michigan into a powerhouse. Christen loves working with students, improving processes, learning new skills, and mentoring. When she isn't giving Planned Parenthood a run for their money, you can find her snuggling her nieces, planning her next backpacking adventure, or doing home renovations with her hubby.
