Fruitport Old Fashion Days Parade on Memorial Day

We had a wonderful turnout of our supporters at the parade! “Thank you” to Kristine and Pawel Babiarz for a great job organizing the event again this year.

Our theme was “SPEAK LIFE”. It was a positive upbeat message with the song “Speak Life” by Tobymac playing from our float. We won the Fruitport Lions “Non-Professional Float” category – thanks to your participation!

Being prolife doesn’t END at birth....
...nor does it
BEGIN there!

It’s been a busy spring, lots of changes for Muskegon County Right to Life!

Our Office Manager, Holly Nolan, welcomed a beautiful new granddaughter, Ava Frances in April. With family commitments increasing, Holly resigned as our Office Manager. We thank Holly for her support in our office over the last year and a half. She will be missed!

We have moved...same address, just a new suite number. Special thanks to our landlord, Dean Recknagel, for his generous support of Muskegon County Right to Life! Another suite has been provided at a reduced rate at the Seminole Shores Professional Plaza. This is a great location for us providing nice office space and conference room facilities for our use.

We are now on the first floor, Suite 108. Our office is open by appointment, please call us at 231 733-6300. We’re hoping this will make it more convenient for you to stop in. We are now an “all volunteer” organization as the Office Manager position is not being replaced. This change and the reduced expense for our office result in more funds available for educational efforts in Muskegon County!

We will be at the 2014 Unity Christian Music Festival in downtown Muskegon August 7th - 9th. Be sure to stop by our booth!

As the elections approach please remember, we can change the political landscape by showing both major political parties that we will not accept candidates from either party who support abortion. We must send the strong signal that political candidates who support the killing of unborn children do not have the ability to adequately represent us at any level of government.

God bless you for all you do to protect life!

Pat Vendal, President, Muskegon County Right to Life
